THE PLACE TO GET WHAT YOU WANT.

COCONINO COUNTY may GET the Reform School building finished up this year, or she may GET the Insane Asylum; Flagstaff will GET the waterworks. But you can't GET the best shoe in Flagstaff, viz., the GIESECKE, nor you can't GET the best pair of pants in Flagstaff, viz., the Swee Orr pants, and you can't GET the best line of neckties, or the most complete line of gents' furnishings in Flagstaff to select from, unless you call on J. W. WEATHERFORD at his well-filled and up-to-date Gents' Furnishing Store on Railroad avenue.

If you want good, suitable, substantial goods, and a better assortment to select from than you can get anywhere else, don't fail to call and see us.

Our new samples for Spring tailor-made clothing have just arrived and we absolutely guarantee every suit to fit, no money being required until you have tried on suits and are satisfied.

Remember, we always keep on hand a full and complete line of high-grade hats, viz., the Stetson and Lion brands, at prices that defy competition.

We will endeavor to be accommodating and courteous to all who may call on us, and wish to extend our thanks to the many customers who have favored us with their patronage during the past year, and with the idea ever before to endeavor to please those who may call on us in future.

I am very truly yours for business,

J. W. WEATHERFORD.

The Town Council met Monday afternoon to consider plans and specifications for the new municipal building. Plans were submitted by Godfrey Sykes and M. J. Kennedy. Mr. Sykes' plans were adopted. Mr. Kennedy's plans for the front were more acceptable than were those of Mr. Sykes, but the latter's plans for the rear were deemed superior to those by Mr. Kennedy. The Councilmen were at a loss how to settle the question as to whose plans should be accepted. Mayor Francis promptly came to the rescue and proposed that the two contestants toss up a coin and settle it that way. "Red" Sykes won, and the Council formally accepted his plans in full. The Town Clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for the construction of the building. The waterworks came in for a little discussion and Clerk Smith was instructed to prepare and advertise a call for an election to be held ten days from date. The Council then adjourned. The next meeting will be on the second Monday in February.

We are sending out bills this week to all our subscribers whose subscriptions have expired. A rule of this paper is to collect all subscription in advance, but in some instances exceptions have been made. It is to those whom we have carried on our books the past year or more that bills are being sent and we respectfully beg them to give the matter their immediate attention. If you have not the money just now to pay up in full come in or drop us a postal card informing us of the fact and we will then know just how the matter stands.
